ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR.

Hundreds of Bryan Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Bryan people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Bryan reader, of the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far-away places. Read the following:

John J. Stacey, Ostlin Street, Bryan, Texas, says: "When seventeen years of age I strained my back and from that time until I was relieved by Doan's Kidney Pills I suffered terribly from pains in my loins. I was also bothered greatly by a kidney weakness. Finally I had the good fortune to hear of Doan's Kidney Pills, and making up my mind to try them, I obtained a box at E. R. Emmel's drug store. They strengthened my kidneys and relieved the pain in my back, thereby convincing me of their value."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Amusements

The Matinee Girl Musical Comedy Company.

When the Matinee Girl Musical Comedy Company will appear at the Colonial Theater for three performances, Friday night, Saturday matinee and night, with a big bunch of funmakers, including those clever comedians, Russell and Gross, offering a play abundant in fun, together with a big special vaudeville bill, this is one of the best popular-priced attractions that has ever been here.

New songs, new costumes and a perfectly drilled chorus of pretty young ladies are among the prominent features of the show. Special scenery and a host of attractive electrical effects are used, and those who appreciate a real good musical jumble of song and fun will have a splendid chance to see one of the best on the road on this occasion.

THE AVIATION MEET

Nels J. Nelson, the famous aviator, says that aviation as a science is only in its infancy. "My whole aim is to improve it, and make it useful. I hardly think there will be a time soon when airships will be of commercial value, but I do think they will be useful before long. I mean that men of big affairs will own them, and when business matters are pressing will get them out and rush them to nearby cities on urgent business. We are aiming to get down to basic principles in aviation so that we can say that two and two equal four with some certainty that it will not equal three or five infinity to the zero quantity."

During Nelson's recent visit in San Jose he had occasion to visit Santa Clara College. This came after the rest of the party of which Nelson was a member. It will be remembered that Nelson was taken in by the authorities for exceeding the speed limit in an automobile. He might easily do this in the air, but it is hardly possible on terra firma.

Nelson saw the wonderful old church and had some of its history told him by Father R. E. Kenna and the Rev. Father Morrissey. Ingenious devices are used in the old mission building for the work of decorating, all being done by Indians, etc.

He also visited the Rev. Father

Ricard. It was the Rev. Father Ricard, however, with his wonderful weather and earthquake instruments and sun-spot demonstrations who furnished the information closely allied with Nelson's flying business. The delicately balanced seismographs were thoroughly examined and explained, as was the theory of the sun spots acting directly on the earth's weather conditions. The Rev. Father Ricard evidently was anxious about the weather. He did not want to throw cold water on the enthusiasm of the aviator and the committee of men who accompanied him, but he saw some rough sailing ahead and was frank enough not to dodge the issue.

"I have carried lots of passengers, but I wouldn't promise President Taft a ride in advance," he told the party when it was suggested that as a scientist the Rev. Father Ricard should have first choice on an aerial trip. "All the money they make couldn't interest me if I broke my neck or that of the passenger," he said. "It is surprising how far the human body will spatter when it hits the ground."

Earnings Spent in Experiments.

"It is not surprising that Ralph Johnson left so small an estate," Nelson told an interviewer. "An aviator spends as much money as he earns in experimenting on new machines and new parts designed to get the most rising and propelling power with the least possible power. The machine I am now using represents an investment of $7500 and I have two others. Mine is a Curtiss machine."

Prof. J. J. Montgomery was not in Santa Clara and Nelson was not permitted to look over the mechanical treasures in his workshop. Nelson and Prof. Montgomery are acquaintances, and it is expected that the aviators will test some new propellers on a new device Montgomery has for causing the pulling of propellers. "I want to find how much talk-effort there is when you have two propellers pulling against each other," said Nelson, by way of a pun.

Secretary Hewitt has already booked two passengers for the airship. Only one passenger will be allowed to accompany Nelson at a flight.

Rink Opens Tonight.

The Bryan Roller Rink will open tonight. The management will see to it that everybody will be seated and made comfortable while there. After today there will be an afternoon performance free to the public.

MISERABLE DYSPPEPTICS.

All the world looks gloomy to the man with the upset stomach. He sees the world through smoked glasses and never tries to rub off the smoke.

Cheer up, Mr. Dyspeptic, there's bright days ahead of you. Go to E. J. Jenkins' drug store this very day and say I want a box of MI-O-NA tablets. Take them as directed and if the misery doesn't leave your stomach and bring a sunny smile to your gloomy countenance, go and get your 50c back. MI-O-NA stomach tablets will promptly end the distress of indigestion, will stop nervousness, dizziness, biliousness, sick headache and sleeplessness. Fifty cents buys a large box at E. J. Jenkins' and druggists everywhere.

See our hand-painted china put up in pretty lined boxes for gifts. Parker-Astin.

This is the Coffee Andrew Jackson Liked so Well

After his brilliant victory at Chalmette in 1815, Andrew Jackson led his troops past the old French Market in New Orleans and treated the officers and men to fresh, hot French Market Coffee. And in 1843, Henry Clay—at the conclusion of his eloquent speech at the great banquet in his honor—slipped away, with his friends, to the old French Market for a cup of the same famous beverage. Then you could get
